The second volume deals with the united correspondence systems of the body located on the hand and foot, with the correspondence systems of particular organs, as well as with the method of regulating energy flow (treatment by byol-meridians). Techniques of active points stimulation are presented in detail, clinical cases of application of therapeutic systems on the hands and feet are discussed. The text is illustrated by original drawings and photographs. - The book is intended for physicians of different specialties, medical students and also for a large public, for those who wish to master an effective and accessible way of providing medical aid.
